EVOLUTION WINS LIVE CASINO SUPPLIER OF THE YEAR AWARD FOR 11TH YEAR RUNNING AT THE EGR B2B AWARDS

[PR] Evolution Gaming, leading provider of Live Casino solutions, has again been named Live Casino Supplier of the Year at the EGR B2B Awards 2020, in a remarkable unbroken run of 11 wins since the awards began in 2010.

Evolution beat 12 other shortlisted suppliers to win the Live Casino Supplier accolade on day one of the virtual ceremony held on 21 July.

Speaking after the ceremony, Martin Carlesund, Evolution Group CEO commented: "The past 12 months have seen Evolution once again push the boundaries of what is possible in Live Casino. In terms of the way Evolution has continued to develop and introduce ground-breaking new products, it has been a most encouraging year – and all despite a very challenging global situation brought about by the Covid-19 pandemic."

Carlesund added: "We introduced a record number of 12 new games this year. Our exclusive and unique game show games portfolio continued to grow with new titles such as Mega Ball and Crazy Time becoming immediate player favourites. We also continued to reinvent classic casino games for the next generation of players, with Lightning Baccarat, Speed Blackjack and Power Blackjack all joining an already varied and entertaining portfolio of both Live and First Person games."

He concluded: "I know I can speak for everyone at Evolution when I say we are extremely proud to have retained this award. Once again, our people have worked tirelessly to extend our position as the number one Live Casino supplier and to deliver an exceptional Live Casino experience for players. Our licensees, meanwhile, have been extremely loyal and always receptive to innovative new ideas that enrich our whole sector. My sincere thanks to everyone."

About the EGR Awards
